A decision by the chairperson under this Rule is final.

8.7 Adjournment of general meeting

The chairperson of a general meeting may at any time during the meeting adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting.

The adjournment may be either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting at any time and any place.

The chairperson may, but need not, seek any approval for the adjournment.

Unless required by the chairperson, a vote may not be taken or demanded in respect of any adjournment.

Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

8.8 Notice of adjourned meeting

It is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting unless a meeting is adjourned for one month or more.

In that case, the same period of notice as was originally given for the meeting must be given for the adjourned meeting.

8.9 Questions decided by majority

Subject to the requirements of the Act and Rule 9.3, a resolution is carried if a simple majority of the votes cast on the resolution are in favour of it.

8.11 Declaration of results

At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a secret ballot is demanded by any Representative and the demand is not withdrawn.

A declaration by the chairperson, or a scrutineer nominated by the chairperson, that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meetings of the Association is conclusive evidence of the fact.

Neither the chairperson nor the minutes need state and it is not necessary to prove, the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against the resolution.

In a vote taken on the election of a chairperson pursuant to Rule 8.5(d), the Secretary should act as scrutineer of the vote.

8.12 Secret ballot

If a secret ballot is demanded by any Representative, it must be taken in the manner and at the date and time directed by the chairperson and the result of the secret ballot is the resolution of the meeting at which the secret ballot was demanded.

A secret ballot demanded on the election of a chairperson or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately. In the absence of a chairperson, the Secretary should act as scrutineer of the secret ballot.

A demand for a secret ballot may be withdrawn.

A demand for a secret ballot does not prevent the meeting continuing for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the secret ballot has been demanded.

8.13 Objection to voting qualification

An objection to the right of a person to attend or vote at the meeting or adjourned meeting:

- (a) may not be raised except at that meeting; and
- (b) must be referred to the chairperson of the meeting, whose decision is final.

A vote not disallowed under this objection is valid for all purposes.

8.14 Chairperson to determine any secret ballot dispute

If there is a dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the chairperson of the meeting must decide it and their decision made in good faith is final and conclusive.

On a show of hands the official Representative of a Full Member present at a general meeting has one vote.
